

It would be a disastrous blow to the ring and a very honorable act on the part of Mr. TIFANY, if he should decline being used as a cat-paw to draw the chestnuts from the fire, and withdraw from the canvass.

SINCE the 1st of April the Central Pacific Railroad has brought into the State 24,518 persons. The list of names and occupations kept at Sacramento show that a large number of these arrivals are farmers and many of them accompanied by their families. This is the class of immigration we need.

THE problem that is now giving the ring trouble is how many votes Mr. TIFANY will receive. As it is known that he is a mere decoy-duck kept in the field in the hope that he will draw votes from Mr. BEAUDRY, it is not probable he will poll a sufficient number to give the officers a great deal of trouble in counting them.

THE Water Company's organ has been looking over the bills of the HERALD office, and finds a few extra work done for the city, over which it makes itself exceedingly glad; but it does not deny that it proposed to the HERALD to put up a job on the city printing and queue a thousand or more dollars out of the tax-payers. Since the professed Republican organ found it convenient to advocate a Democratic candidate, the people expect anything from it except a straightforward, honest, manly course. When the HERALD concludes to take money from the Republican County Committee and consolation from Democrats, it will apply to the Express for instructions in the art of double dealing.

THE Democrats of San Francisco held a grand jollification meeting last Thursday night. There were 6,000 or 7,000 Democrats assembled together and in all perhaps a dozen speeches were made. The speakers were generally old-liners, and it is something to their credit as well as encouraging to those whose votes contributed to the late Republican defeat that the sentiments of all were of a liberal character and their tone temperate and moderate. This is something we hardly expected of San Francisco Democracy. The leaders there, with a few honorable exceptions, are of the old Bourbon quality and their feelings have been embittered by repeated failures and defeats. If these old Bourbons can counsel moderation and talk common sense in the face of sweeping victories, there is hope for the party and encouragement for the people.

EVERY steamer coming down from San Francisco is loaded with passengers, four-fifths of whom land at Wilmington. By far the greater proportion of these people are searching for homes in Southern California. At no time within the last twenty years has the number of arrivals been anything like as great as at present. A proportion of those coming are of the honest miner race, on their way to Panamint and the country east of us, but the number in search of land is large, and as a general thing they desire to locate in Los Angeles valley. By far the greater number of these are pleased with the country and delighted with what they see. People from the Northwestern States are astonished, and among the first inquiries is the one, "Is this your winter weather?" The green hills and sunny days are things they are not accustomed to see at this season of the year in the country of their old homes. Los Angeles valley is receiving a large and desirable accession to her population.

Prompt Action Necessary.

A matter of very great importance to the future of Los Angeles is not receiving that attention it deserves. We refer to the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad. Beyond the fact that we have an engineer running preliminary lines nothing is being done, and in place of energetic action and a manifest determination to build the road, there are unmistakable signs that we are gradually settling back into the old style apathy, the grand purpose of which was to let every day provide for itself. Why wait for the engineer's report? We know from the investigations he has already made that the Cajon Pass route is the one we shall adopt; we know that it is practical. Why not go to work now? We must have the road or lose the already large and rapidly increasing trade of Panamint, Cerrito Gordo and all the Owens river country. This is a conclusion which cannot be talked out of sight. The "back country" trade, about which the HERALD has talked so much that some people have thought it the correct thing to make fun of it, is of vital interest to Los Angeles. If we retain it we become a city; if we lose it we remain a town. The upper portion of the San Joaquin valley and the railroad company are doing all in their power, which is a great deal more than our people are doing, to induce this vast trade to reach and leave the railroad at or near Bakerfield. Their success or failure depends upon the people of Los Angeles. We can continue on in the course we are now traveling and in a little time the trade that now passes through this city will be turned up the San Joaquin valley. We can bestir ourselves and build the road and in a short time increase the trade we now have ten or twenty fold. We commend these suggestions to the Chamber of Commerce. The people are looking to that body and its immediate awakening from the deep sleep which now holds it quiet will meet a hearty response from all.

A Home Thrust.

EDITOR HERALD: You pinned the Express to the wall in Sunday morning's HERALD. The reproduction of its editorial of May last in which it praised Mr. BEAUDRY and his pluck and enterprise so highly and painted in such glowing colors the great benefits that would result from his successful effort to place water on the "lands that fringe our city," compared with the present abuse of Mr. BEAUDRY, and attempts to disparage what it then so extolled, should have been a good lesson to the little trifle might have had against Mr. BEAUDRY in the present campaign. VOTER.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10th, 1874. We have never supposed that the Express could seriously injure Mr. BEAUDRY or any other respectable citizen in this community. It has turned against its friends so often that all have learned to distrust it. We are sorry to see our little cotemporary in such a bad odor, but it has brought its fate upon itself. In this campaign it has made the mistake of supposing that bush-whacking slang and personal abuse could be passed off for argument. It is a mistake common to a class of journals that are not so particular about the principles they advocate as they are about the "value received" for such advocacy. It is not for us to say that the Express is now acting the part of servant to the ring, but any person who will compare its frank, manly commendation of Mr. BEAUDRY and his work a few months back with its coarse, personal attacks on him now will hardly be able to avoid that conclusion. Was the Express lying in May last or is it lying now? It had no object in lying then; it has an object in lying now. The people understand the little traitor, and as our correspondent says they are glad to see it nailed to the wall.

Those Names.

We find the following in the Express of last evening: THE HERALD of the 13th states that twenty-three persons have called to pay their taxes against whom the Assessor's books show no assessment. If the HERALD and its master, Beaudry, had believed this to be true, they would have published those names, for this would be one of Beaudry's cheap ways to manufacture popularity. Trot them out.

L. SIEBOLD, City Assessor. We ask the pardon of "L. SIEBOLD, City Assessor," for the omission. Here are not twenty-three but twenty-four names of persons and firms who have called to pay their taxes and found no assessment against them. The names are from the City Clerk's record:

Antunias, Smoot & Soule,
Rosalia Mendez, Anita Elias,
David Johnson, Adelaida Alvarado,
Arcadio, Ramon Ybarra,
Theophila Ortiz, Juan Reyes de Ra-
moza, Chazara, Irujo,
Jose Maria Ybana, Miranda,
Swigart & Huber, Rosaria Aceda,
McGuire, Simpson,

Utah's Delegate to Congress.

SALT LAKE, November 13th.—Baskins gives notice of his intended contest for the seat as Delegate to the next Congress, and Cannon replies published in full this evening. Baskins sets forth that Cannon is not a citizen of the United States; that since the passage of the Act of Congress against polygamy he has taken three plural wives; that he had a lawful wife and one plural wife before; that he is still living with said wives; that his obligations are yielded the revelations of polygamy as superior to law, and that he cannot, as an apostle of the Mormon Church, take the oath of office without mental reservation or purposes of evasion. Cannon denies that he is not a citizen and says he was naturalized in the First District Court in 1854. He admits that he is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, but in regard to polygamy he insists that if guilty under the law he is subject to prosecution in Court. In this election contest, however, he thinks there is no right to question him, nor should he be required to answer on that subject. Still he denies that he has any relation with women as will subject him to punishment by law. He says he invites judicial investigation; that he recognizes his duty to be loyal to the Government; that the Mormon Church enjoins no conduct repugnant to the duties of a loyal citizen, and that he has never made any pledge or promise to said Church conflicting with his allegiance to the United States; and furthermore, that he is in no way ineligible, and having received 20,000 majority he is legally elected to Congress.

A Man Killer Convicted.

SALEM, Oregon, November 15th.—The case of the State of Oregon vs. The Deland, for killing Hubbard, brought in a verdict as charged. This is the second trial, and there seems to be no hope but that he must suffer the severest penalty of the law. He will be sentenced to-morrow.

The following are the prices paid in some recent land sales in Stanislaus county: Wainwright to Tynan, 320 acres cash sale, five miles from Modesto, $45 50 per acre. Carter to Whitmore, cash sale, 320 acres, three miles from Modesto, $15 per acre. Mitchell and Cressey Brothers to W. H. Davis, 60 acres two miles from Modesto, $12 per acre. All of the land was of excellent quality, level, light, rich sandy loam, and in good neighborhoods, and within three miles of a railroad depot, and only about 105 miles from San Francisco.

A Frenchman named John Fayolle committed suicide on Wednesday last near Oroville.

EASTERN.

Change of Route of the Southern Pacific.

WASHINGTON, November 16th.—A movement is organizing to procure Congressional legislation changing the Southern Pacific Railroad route so as to avoid the necessity for crossing the mountains separating the Salinas and San Joaquin valleys. The company say they will construct the road across the mountains by the route already described, rather than lose their subsidy, but won't use the route when done, because it will be cheaper to avoid the heavy grade by going directly down the San Joaquin to Oakland, while if the route is changed as desired, so that they can enter Salinas valley from the east by the most practicable pass and proceed by that route, they will make the terminus in San Francisco. The proposition is viewed with favor here if it will not shut out some competing road and has no other objectionable purpose, on which point reliable information is desired.

BROOKLYN, November 16th.—The argument on the appeal from Judge Neilson's decision granting a bill of particulars in the Beecher-Tilton case was heard this afternoon in Court before Judges McCue and Reynolds. Previous to the argument, Gen. Tracy requested the Court that the date of trying the cause be postponed until December, as counsel for defendant would be obliged to break an important engagement if the case should be called for trial on Wednesday next. After discussion it was decided that the case should not be tried before the first Monday of December. The argument on the appeal was begun by Mr. Sheehan, who explained the meaning of the bill of particulars and cited precedents in favor of the granting of the bill. The decision of the Court will probably be rendered to-morrow.

Compromise with Pacific Mail. NEW YORK, November 16th.—Some of the United States stockholders are trying to initiate a new movement for a conference with the Pacific Mail, thus showing that they do not concur in Huntington's startling ultimatum of putting the Steamship Company absolutely in the hands of the railroads for a gradual confiscation. The new proposition is that two Directors from the Pacific Mail and two from the United States shall be appointed a committee to decide on the terms of adjustment, and to select an arbitrator if they disagree.

More Trouble in Arkansas. WASHINGTON, November 16th.—A private telegram from a Republican source via Helena, Arkansas, says that military companies are being organized to support the Smith Government, and report prevails that such Government (which is formerly established at Helena, Senator Dorsey of Arkansas, who represents Smith and party, has had several interviews with Attorney-General Williams. Last night a representative of Garland called on Williams and requested him to suspend action until that side could be heard. The Attorney-General has thus far received Smith's telegram to President Grant and Smith's proclamation, and will hold a conference with the President to-morrow.

LITTLE ROCK, November 15th.—Col. J. M. Johnson, Secretary of State under Gov. Baxter, who turned over his office to his successor under the new constitution, authorizes a denial of the statement from Washington that he and other State officials elected with Smith, now recognize him as Governor. Perfect quiet prevails here. Smith and his Secretary of State (Whelan) are in the city. Garland will to-morrow offer a reward for their apprehension, that they may be brought before the Courts and held to answer charges against them. Neither Gov. Garland nor the Legislature will in session, and the President or Congress, the State authorities being able to protect the Government.

Survey of the Hudson. NEW YORK, November 16th.—The surveys now being made of the upper Hudson are believed to be to ascertain the feasibility and probable expense of a scheme to connect the great West with the Atlantic by the proposed Champlain ship-canal, by making the river navigable from Troy to Fort Edward by ships drawing fourteen feet and deepening Wood creek between Fort Edmonds and Lake Champlain, at Whitehall. The outlet from the latter to the St. Lawrence is proposed to be the proposed Caughnawaga Canal.

From New Orleans. NEW YORK, November 16th.—A Herald New Orleans special says—Governor Wells, President of the Returning Board, says he has official knowledge that additional Federal troops have been ordered to New Orleans, and intimates that in the Congressional Districts where the Board discovers informality in the elections, they will refuse certificates to candidates, leaving the Government to order a new election within thirty days.

Another dispatch says a long dispatch reporting a fiery editorial advocating the assassination of every Radical counted in by the Returning Board, has been received from New York. The leaders of the White League favor moderation till Congress meets, unless, in the meantime, the Returning Board forces an issue, when it will be met without any conflict with the Federal Government.

Wool Market. CHICAGO, 14th.—In Boston and New York there is a light demand for California wool at lower prices, ruling 19-25-27-33-40 cts. as to quality; Fall California 20-40 cts.

FOREIGN.

Overthrow of a Village.—The Cubans capturing a Village.

HAVANA, November 15th.—The village of Mayn was overthrown by twenty-four hours. Nearly every house was washed away.

A Havana letter of November 7th says it is reported from insurgent sources that the village of Geronimo, in the central department, and a gar-don of 130 civil guards and 70 volunteers were captured by the Insurgents, the town sacked and burned, and most of the garrison killed.

From Over the Water. BERLIN, November 15th.—The second arrest of Count Von Arnim has caused a painful impression in this city. The moderate journals insist upon an explanation by the Government.

The Kreuz Zeitung says: Count Von Arnim, after his release on bail from imprisonment, caused several missing documents which were only mislaid. He delivered them to the city court through his counsel, Dr. Markel. The possibility of Dr. Markel having learned their contents was, it appears, grounds for the first arrest of Markel, who to-day refused to make any statement at the examination.

London, November 15th.—The insurrection in the Argentine Republic is declining. Gen. Mitre, with 4,000 men, is retreating South, and 15,000 Government troops are in pursuit.

Some of the farmers of Round Valley, Mendocino county, have commenced plowing.
